DECISION A DRAW

seems of excitement may be. Unparalelled confusion broke out in the wheat pit of the board of trade today and the world's greatest grain market presented a picture of a mad struggle of buyers who heard wheat soar by cent until it reached the highest point of months. It was $1.45, $1.45 on the crop. The price was the positive statement of J. A. Patten. Hundreds of spectators crowded into the galleries in anticipation of the outbreak of excitement. While the confusion in the pit was at its height the spectators were fighting among themselves for room in which to witness the excitement.

When bidding prices that regined today giving cause for the frantic turmoil of buyers, were:

May, 87½ to 88½, back to 87½.
September, 90½ to 91½, back to 90½.
October, 90½ to 93½, back to 92½.
Apparently every order was filled and every broker on the board had buyers orders. Foreign buyers rushed into the market.

"It is headed for dollar wheat," was the cry throughout the pit. "It will never stop until it touches a dollar." The bulls were jubilant.

It will get up to $120," said a member of Frisbie, Eitch & Rankin, repeating the prophecy of Patten.

"It will go way up," said W. S. Crosby, of Shearson Hammill Company.

New York Feels Some Excitement, And Options Rise

NEW YORK, May 11.—The speculation in the Chicago pit, which has been constantly increasing in volume and excitement all week, reached its climax today, when the price of the leading options was bid up over 2 cents in the bushel. Reports of freezing temperatures had something to do with this, but the urgent buying for future delivery in all the foreign markets, which this morning assumed almost the character of a panic, was the principal factor in the rise.

The local stock market, under these circumstances, displayed much hesitancy, and, on the whole, the undertone was heavy.

PASTOR OFFERS

MRS. BRADLEY DEEP SYMPATHY

NEW YORK, May 11.—A witness of the utmost importance for Mrs. Annie Bradley, who shot and killed the former Senator Arthur Brown of Utah, in Washington last fall, has announced his intention of coming East to testify for her at her trial.

This witness is the Rev. David Utter, pastor of the Unity Church, of Denver, Col. He was a friend and co-worker of Mrs. Bradley, and was intimately acquainted with Senator Brown's family. It was he who, when the infatuation between Brown and Mrs. Bradley first began, made an effort to induce her to give up the Senator and leave Utah. Mr. Utter is prepared to give it as his opinion that Mrs. Bradley was insane when she killed her husband. The defense theory that love itself is a species of insanity and should be dealt with accordingly. In a statement today the clergyman paid a high tribute to the personal character and charms of Mrs. Bradley. He said:

"Mrs. Bradley was a woman one could well be proud to call 'friend.' I respect her for what she was; I pity her for what she has endured through her foolish infatuation for a man she knew was bad to the hilt. A woman is loved for her goodness or goodness or badness, kindness or cruelty, and whether the object of her love be a thief or a murderer. Mrs. Bradley was a woman who overlooked this and cares for nothing but that she has the man of her choice. True friends is hers. Their censure is slight or missing altogether.

"Those who attempt to defame her character in general or to speak slightingly of her do her a grievous wrong. She was a good, pure, high-minded, unmaterial woman, who lived for her life. I will gladly do anything in my power to mitigate her sufferings or to hasten her release from the clutches of the law for the crime she has committed."

Attorney George Hoover, of the firm of Wells, Hoover & Wells, who will defend Mrs. Bradley, stated today that he

In person at her trial. Mr. Hoover learned while in Salt Lake City last winter that the Rev. Mr. Citter was familiar with the whole Bradley-Brown relation, and included the minister in the list of witnesses.

RECEPTION TENDERED

PASTOR WOODROW

Members of the Christian Endeavor Union of the District of Columbia, in mass meeting last night, held at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, tendered a reception to the Rev. S. N. Woodrow, the new pastor of the First Congregational Church. Addresses and music made up the program. Dr. Woodrow spoke.

A store is about what its advertising implies. If its publicity is of the "compelling" kind "IT IS A WORTH-WHILE STORE." Sermons in want ads? YES! Notice how often "sober" is used.

There was considerable clinching throughout the fight, the men repeatedly struggling the length of the ring with locked arms, and Referee Burns was forced to separate them by main strength.

In the heat of a hot mix-up in the eighteenth round Kelly sent in a low kick which apparently did no damage to Burns, but which infuriated Burns and Sullivan suddenly dropped to his knees with a move as if hurt. Burns then turned to the referee and mentioned the men to continue. Both fought fiercely throughout the entire fight, but Kelly, appearing to be the strongest, but Sullivan held his own in good shape, and the decision was a draw.

The house was the smallest which has ever seen a fight of such character. The receipts were $3,000.

At the close of the evening Burns was equally divided as he climbed into the ring.
